CONTENTS OF VOLUME 30

ANGUS, T. A.—The aerobic bacteria associated with the eastern hemlock looper, Lambdina fiscellaria (Gn.), 208.

ARNOLD, J. W.—Effects of certain fumigants on haemocytes of the Mediterranean flour moth, Ephestia kuhniella Zell. (Lepidoptera: Pyralididae), 365. The haemocytes of the Mediterranean flour moth, Esphestia kühniella Zell. (Lepidoptera: Pyralididae), 352.

AUCLAIR, J. L.—See Maltais, J. B.

AUCLAIR, J. L. and DUBREUIL, R.—A simple ultramicromethod for the quantitative estimation of amino acids by paper partition chromatography, 109.

BLAIS, J. R.—The relationship of the spruce budworm (Choristoneura fumiferana, Clem.) to the flowering condition of balsam fir (Abies balsamea (L.) Mill.), 1.

BONDAR, G. F.—See McLeod, J. A.

BRENNAN, J. M.—See Brown, J. H.

BRIDGEFORD, H. B. and PELLUET, D.—Induced changes in the cells of the ovotestis of the slug, Deroceras reticulatum (Muller), with special reference to the nucleolus, 323.

BROWN, J. H. and BRENNAN, J. M.—A note on the chiggers (Trombiculidae) of Alberta, 338.

BRYGIDER, W.—In what embryonic stage do the eggs of Neodiprion enter the winter diapause?, 99.

BUTLER, L.—A study of size inheritance in the house mouse. II. Analysis of five preliminary crosses, 154.

CAMERON, M. L.—See McCarter, J .A.

CHOQUETTE, L. P. E.—Dirofilaria desportesi sp. nov., a filariid from the black bear in Canada, 344.

CHURCH, N. S. and SALT, R. W.—Some effects of temperature on development and diapause in eggs of Melanoplus bivittatus (Say) (Orthoptera: Acrididae), 173.

COMMON, R. H.—See Phillips, W. E. J.

COTTLE, M. K.—See Hoar, W. S.

DAVIES, D. M.—The population and activity of adult female black flies in the vicinity of a stream in Algonquin Park, Ontario, 287.

DUBREUIL, R.—See Auclair, J. L.

ELIGH, G. S.—Factors influencing the performance of the precipitin test in the determination of blood meals of insects, 213. See West, A. S.

FISHER, R. W.—The importance of the locus of application on the effectiveness of DDT for the house fly, Musca domestica L. (Diptera: Muscidae), 254.

GRENIER, F.—See Kleerekoper, H.

HART, J. S.—Use of daily metabolic periodicities as a measure of the energy expended by voluntary activity of mice, 83. Effects of temperature and work on metabolism, body temperature, and insulation: Results with mice, 90.

HAYES, F. R.—See McCarter, J. A.

HENSON, W. R. and SHEPHERD, R. F.—The effects of radiation on the habitat temperatures of the lodgepole needle miner, Recurvaria milleri Busck (Gelechiidae: Lepidoptera), 144.

HOAR, W. S. and COTTLE, M. K.—Dietary fat and temperature tolerance of goldfish, 41. Some effects of temperature acclimatization on the chemical constitution of goldfish tissues, 49.

HOAR, W. S., MACKINNON, D., and REDLICH, A.—Effects of some hormones on the behavior of salmon fry, 273.

JACOBSON, L. A.—Effects of starvation on larvae of the pale western cutworm, Agrotis orthogonia Morr. (Lepidoptera: Phalaenidae), 194.

JODREY, L. H.—See McCarter, J. A.

KLEEREKOPER, H. A new apparatus for the study of sedimentation in lakes, 185.

KLEEREKOPER, H. and GRENIER, F.—The bottom sediments of Lake Lauzon, Montcalm County, Province of Quebec. I. Chemical and physical investigations, 219.

MCCARTER, J. A., HAYES, F. R., JODREY, L. H., and CAMERON, M. L.—Movement of materials in the hypolimnion of a lake as studied by the addition of radioactive phosphorus, 128.

MCCRAW, B. M.—Observations on the development of Lymnaea palustris Müller, 378.

MACKINNON, D.—See Hoar, W. S.

MCLEOD, J. A. and BONDAR, G. F.—Studies on the biology of the muskrat in Manitoba. Part I. Oestrous cycle and breeding season, 243.

MALTAIS, J. B. and AUCLAIR, J. L.—Occurrence of amino acids in the honeydew of the crescent-marked lily aphid, Myzus circumflexus (Buck.), 191.

MAW, W. A.—See Phillips, W. E. J.

MOORE, J. E.—The entomostraca of Southern Saskatchewan, 410.

NURSALL, J. R.—The early development of a bottom fauna in a new power reservoir in the Rocky Mountains of Alberta, 387.

PELLUET, D.—See Bridgeford, H. B.

PHILLIPS, W. E. J., COMMON, R. H., and MAW, W. A.—Some effects of progesterone on the response of the immature pullet to estrogen, and some observations on the effects of gonadal hormones on the avian spleen and kidney, 201.

PIELOU, D. P. The nonmutagenic action of p–p'-DDT and 2-hexachlorocyclohexane in Drosophila melanogaster Meig. (Diptera: Drosophilidae), 375.

REDLICH, A.—See Hoar, W. S.

SALT, R. W.—Some aspects of moisture absorption and loss in eggs of Melanoplus bivittatus (Say), 55. See Church, N. S.

SHEPHERD, R. F.—See Henson, W. R.

STEPHENS, J. M.—Disease in codling moth larvae produced by several strains of Bacillus cereus, 30.

TAYLOR, S. J.—Vascularity of the hypophysis of lower vertebrates. The painted turtle, Chrysemys picta marginata Agassiz, 134.

WELLINGTON, W. G.—Air-mass climatology of Ontario north of Lake Huron and Lake Superior before outbreaks of the spruce budworm, Choristoneura fumiferana (Clem.), and the forest tent caterpillar, Malacosoma disstria Hbn. (Lepidoptera: Tortricidae; Lasiocampidae), 114.

WEST, A. S. and ELIGH, G. S.—The rate of digestion of blood in mosquitoes. Precipitin test studies, 267.
